In the case of payment on account, the customer undertakes to pay the invoiced amount up to the due date indicated on the invoice. Any objection to the invoice has to be made in writing and substantiated within 7 days. If the customer fails to meet his payment obligation within the period of payment, he shall be in default with the expiry of this period without further warning and shall pay default interest of 5%. 3. TICKETING / ONLINE TICKETS

3.1. Refunds

Personal and general reasons of prevention

No claim for reimbursement or reclassification is given for single trips, morning, half day or day passes, evening tickets, mountain experiences, special subscriptions and for personal reasons. In such cases no reimbursement or reclassifications are possible.

Disruption or shutdown of services

Operating limitations (e.g. due to technical defects or power interruptions) do not entitle the customer to a refund or to a compensation for any damage or injury caused by force majeure, such as wind and weather effects, avalanche danger, strikes or official orders.

Accidents or illness

In the event of an accident or illness that results in the premature termination of the season of the cardholder, the season ticket must be deposited at an issuing office within 10 days of the incident. The delivery of the aforementioned item may be facilitated either by registered post or by a third party. In the event that the travelcard or multi-day tickets are no longer utilised, the unused days will be reimbursed upon submission of a medical certificate, in accordance with the following provisions of Art. The following subsections are numbered 3.1, 3.1.1, 3.1.2 and 3.1.3. Submissions of passes/tickets which are received after the stipulated deadline, as well as those which are utilised again in the aftermath of an accident or illness, will not be eligible for reimbursement. The certificate must be issued by a practising physician within the Davos Klosters region, or by a hospital located within this geographical area. The date of the medically certified accident/illness or the day after the subsequent use of the season ticket is relevant for the calculation of the refund. The reimbursement for multi-day tickets is calculated on the basis of the number of days travelled at the regular multi-day ticket rate. The day following the final day of use is a crucial element in the calculation of refunds for multi-day travelcards. In the case of family season tickets, the reduction on the normal price is calculated first. The resulting discount is also taken into account in the refund, which is only issued to the individual who has had an accident or illness. Refunds will only be granted until the conclusion of the current season. The validity of the subscription/ticket is subject to immediate expiry upon receipt of the refund.

3.1.1 Season Ticket ESA/TopCard

- end-November 70 % of the purchase price
- end-December 60 % of the purchase price
- end-January 45 % of the purchase price

- From the First of September no reimbursement

3.1.3 Season Tickets and Pandemic

The requirements for a refund are:

- If the whole spatial validity of the season card is affected
- Based on 260 operating days
- The loss of use because of the purchase date cannot be considered
- The requirement will be booked onto the next season ticket
- The arrangement is only valid for 2020/21 and 2021/22

3.2. Loss/Replacement of tickets

Stolen or lost passes are only replaced by producing the original receipt with the revocation number for the remaining credit. At the same time the lost ticket will be blocked against unauthorized use. An administration fee of CHF 20.00 will be charged including the fee for the new KeyCard. Key Tickets are not replaced.

No refunds can be made for: single/return trips, morning, half day, daily and evening ticket and mountain experiences without a KeyCard.

Reimbursement claims for forgotten passes (day tickets) are only paid up to the end of the current season.

3.3. Ticket Abuse

The cashier, cableway or official control staff, at any time, is entitled to perform ticket checks. The Customer must identify himself with an officially valid ID (passport, driver's license). Any abusive use of tickets, in particular the transfer of sport passes or the modification of the information contained therein, results in immediate withdrawal without compensation. In addition to the official tariff of the abused or invalid ticket, a supplement of CHF 500.00 will be charged, according to Art.16 of the eidg. Transportgesetzes (Federal Law of Transport), of October 4, 1985. In addition, DKM reserves the right to prosecute. The ticket owner is responsible for ensuring that no third-party abuse is permitted. The DKM reserves the right to stage a photo control at the entrance and to impose a fine for ticket abuse.

3.4. Cancellation fees Hotel Online Shop

If cancellations are made to the hotel online shop, with or without justification, a fee of CHF 5.- will be charged if the cancellations account for more than 1% of the total bookings.

3.5. Reimbursement of morning tickets

The reimbursement of morning tickets is only possible on the valid day until 13.00 pm at the sales counters in the bottom stations.

The morning ski pass has to be presented when asking for a reimbursement. Receipts and credit cards alone are not accepted as a ticket. A maximum of one morning ticket per day can be refunded per person.

4. CAMERA MONITORING OF FACILITIES, PISTES, BIKE TRAILS AND PARKING LOTS

The facilities in the ski areas, the pistes and bike trails as well as the car parks are partially monitored by camera for safety reasons.

4.1. Off-piste skiing/Protected wildlife and forest areas

Freeriders, skiers and snowboarders face increased dangers outside the marked and patrolled pistes. DKM excludes all liability for skiing outside the marked and controlled area. To leave tracks on steep, dangerous slopes encourages other inexperienced skiers and snowboarders to follow, which, in changeable weather and snow conditions can set off avalanches. The slopes of the DKM are laid out in open terrain. Small areas of woodland are by-passed in order to protect plants and animals. Trees and shrubs should not be damaged and wildlife not disturbed or driven away from its habitat. The protected wildlife and forest areas are marked and published (www.wildruhe.gr.ch). Please pay attention to our warning signs.

4.2. Reckless behavior / Misconduct of the ticket holder

DKM is entitled to confiscate the holder's ticket in the case of reckless behaviour, violation of the covid-19 safety concept or of the present conditions or disregard of orders from transport staff, cashiers and official controllers. In particular non-compliance of FIS-Rules, disregard of signals, instructions and barriers, as well as use of cordoned off pistes, slopes exposed to avalanches or wildlife habitat and protected forest zones. It is forbidden to use pistes when they are closed and outside of the official operating hours.

Anyone endangering safety and order in winter sport regions due to drunkenness or drug abuse is liable to be banned temporarily or permanently from the lift facilities and winter sport pistes. Ticket prices will not be refunded.

Anyone causing damage or contamination to DKM facilities or equipment shall pay the costs for cleaning and repair. In case of intentional damage/contamination, DKM reserves the right to bring charges against the offender.

Snowmobilers who seriously injure one or more persons through reckless and uncontrolled driving can be reported to the police or to the public prosecutor for disturbance of public transport as defined in Article 237 of the Swiss Criminal Code.

Reckless behaviour is among other things, when off piste skiers or free riders defy the avalanche warning signs and lights and ride on avalanche prone slopes thereby greatly endangering the lives and health of other people who are on the slopes, downhill runs or doing snow sports.

Unlike the criminal sanction and sentence, the civil sanction of damages can already occur by the triggering of the snow mass. This is the case when whoever is responsible for the slopes or more specifically the ski and rescue service has initiated a search operation in the snow mass after and following an avalanche, which later turns out to be unnecessary. Off piste and freeriders who ignore warning signals of danger and ride on avalanche prone slopes and trigger avalanches violate a contract secondary obligation and are liable to the mountain railway company for the damage caused thereby.

4.3. Slope markings

By purchasing a bike transport ticket or a Topcard/GraubündenCard, the buyer automatically accepts the MTB Code of Honour (4.6.). Furthermore, the buyer confirms that he/she will assume all liability for any damage that he/ she causes.

Freeride:

Freeride can be dangerous. Use of the freeride trails is at the user's own risk. Operators of the facility, land owners and managers accept no liability.

Proper equipment is essential:

A helmet, gloves and bell are compulsory. We strongly recommend a full-face helmet and protectors. The bike must be in perfect working order.

Signage:

All bikers/freeriders must follow the signals and the instructions of the cableway staff. Vehicles and hikers have right of way at the various intersections with forest roads and hiking trails.

Speed:

The speed should be adapted to the user's personal ability and the difficulty level of the trail. All bikers/freeriders must always be in control when riding and must be able to stop at any time. In the event of a fall, the track should be cleared immediately.

Following the rules:

The general mountain bike rules and traffic regulations also apply on the freeride trail. Failure to observe the rules may result in expulsion from the cableway facilities.

4.6. MTB Code of Honour

The 10 rules of conduct for all bikers:

1. Always wear gloves and a helmet.
2. Only ride a bike that is in technically sound condition. It is vital to check the material on a regular basis.
3. Never overestimate your own ability or fitness levels.
4. Adhere to the road traffic regulations.
5. Show consideration for plants and animals and only use existing roads and trails. Do not cut across land where no trail exists.
6. Do not drop/leave litter in the countryside.
7. Show consideration for hikers and pedestrians.
8. Refrain from descending in a daredevil manner. If hikers are approaching, slow down to a reasonable speed.
9. Always close gates and fences behind you.
10. Follow instructions and signs from the police, military and forestry staff

5. ACCIDENT IN THE WINTER AND SUMMER SPORTS AREA

DKM's rescue service is available in case a ticket holder suffers an injury in the winter sports area. Rescue services are invoiced directly or included in the doctor's/hospital bill. These rescue services will be invoiced at cost by Davos Klosters Bergbahnen AG or included in the hospital/doctor's bill. Additional costs may be incurred for third-party services such as ambulance transportation, air rescue, etc. The patients themselves are responsible for reclaiming any costs from their insurance company.

6. RENTAL

The rental of sport and other equipment is based on individual rent contracts and the conditions therein. The General Terms of Business (GTB) are in all cases an integral part of the rental contracts concluded with DKM. The lessee is liable for grossly negligent damage to the rented property. In case of theft, a formal police report is required. Currently, DKM offers rental of sledges, push-scooters, airboards, skis, boots, helmets mini skidoos and ski-lockers.

7. ACCOMMODATION AND EVENTS

DKM's accommodation and event services are subject to the separate GTC Mountain Hotels and / or GTC events.

8. COMPLAINTS, LIABILITY

Any complaints by the ticket purchasers regarding the services rendered by the DKM must be submitted without delay to DKM. If an immediate notification is not received, the ticket purchaser will lose any claims against DKM.

DKM is liable for personal injury and property damage caused by it or its staff, in accordance with the following provisions. Subsidiary provisions of the Swiss Code of Obligations apply. DKM's liability for damage to property and personal injury is, in particular, excluded, in the case of accidents as a result of non-observance of instructions as follows:

- Disregard of markings and warning signs and leaving the marked and controlled slopes.
